Simon Jobbágy

I am a dedicated Web Development student at Business Academy SouthWest (EASV) in Denmark, with a strong passion for creating intuitive and functional digital experiences. I am from Hungary, and I moved to Denmark to expand my skills and knowledge in modern web technologies.

I am open to on-site, remote, or hybrid opportunities and eager to apply my expertise in real-world projects. Feel free to reach out if you're looking for a motivated developer to join your team!
